Others Concerned

SUBJECT : Applicable Cargo Handling Charges on Transit Export Cargoes

1. Objective:

Further to PPA Memorandum Circular No. 49-87 dated 08 October 1987 re Guidelines on the Treatment of Transit Import and Transit Export Cargoes for Port Charges and Related Purposes, clarification is made on the cargo handling charges applicable to transit export cargoes.

2. Clarifications:

- 2.1 Transit Cargo for Export refers to any article arriving at any domestic port from another domestic port or place and destined for reshipment to a foreign port.
- 2.2 Transit Export Cargoes which are loaded unto the carrying vessel engaged in domestic trade at the port of origin shall be treated as domestic cargoes subject to cargo handling charges applicable to domestic cargoes. The PPA authorized domestic cargo handler thereat shall provide the service.
- 2.3 At the intermediate port (port between the port of origin and the port of exit), such transit export cargoes shall be treated as domestic cargoes. These cargoes shall be serviced by the authorized domestic cargo handler and subject to cargo handling charges applicable to domestic cargoes.
- 2.4 At the port of loading unto the carrying vessel engaged in foreign trade said transit export cargoes shall be treated as foreign cargoes subject to cargo handling charges applicable to foreign cargoes. The PPA authorized cargo handler at said port shall undertake the service.
