II. ROLE OF PPA IN NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Sec. 4. PPA as a State's Economic Tool for Development. – The State recognizes the potential of PPA as significant tools to pursue economic development, and as a means to promote growth by ensuring that its operations are consistent with national development policies and programs.

III. GOVERNING BOARD

Sec. 5. Board Directly Vested with Corporate Powers. – The corporate powers of PPA shall be vested in a Board of Directors pursuant to Section 7(a) of its Charter. Having been vested directly by law with the legal capacity and authority to exercise all corporate powers, the Governing Board is primarily responsible for the governance of the PPA. Consequently, it is the Board and not Management that is primarily accountable to the State for the operations and performance of the PPA.

Sec. 6. Board Duty to Properly Select and Provide Independent Check on Management. – Concomitant with the power to elect the GM from among their rank and to appoint other Officers of PPA, it is the duty of every Governing Board to ensure that they elect and/or employ only Officers who are fit and proper to hold such offices with due regard to their qualifications, competence, experience and integrity. The Board is therefore obliged to provide an independent check on Management.

Sec.7. Mandate and Responsibility for the PPA's Performance. - Although the day-to-day management of the affairs of the PPA may be with Management, the Board is, however, responsible for providing policy directions, monitoring and overseeing Management actions, as articulated in its Charter, and other relevant legislation, rules and regulations. These mandated functions and responsibilities include the following:

- (a) Provide the corporate leadership of the PPA subject to the rule of law, and the objectives set by the National Government through the DOTC and the GCG;
- (b) Establish the PPA's vision and mission, strategic objectives, policies and procedures, as well as defining PPA's values and standards through:
 - Charter Statements;
 - Strategy Maps; and
 - Other control mechanism mandated by best business practices;
- (c) Determine important policies that bear on the character of the PPA to foster its long-term success, ensure its long term viability and strength, and secure its sustained competitiveness;
- (d) Determine the organizational structure of the PPA, defining the duties and responsibilities of its Officers and employees and recommend a compensation and benefit scheme that is consistent with the PPA Compensation and Position Classification System (CPCS) developed by GCG and formally approved by the President of the Philippines;
- (e) Ensure that personnel selection and promotion shall be on the basis of merit and fitness and that all personnel action shall be in pursuit of the applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- (f) Provide sound written policies and strategic guidelines on the PPA's operating budget and major capital expenditures, and prepare the annual and supplemental budgets of the PPA;
- (g) Comply with all reportorial requirements, as required in the Charter as well as applicable laws, rules and regulations;

- (h) Formally adopt and conduct annually the mandated Performance Evaluation System (PES) and the Performance Scorecard and timely and accurate report the results to the GCG; and
- (i) Ensure the fair and equitable treatment of all Stakeholders and enhancing the PPA's relations with its Stakeholders.

Sec. 8. Specific Functions of the Board. - In addition to those specified in its Charter, the Board shall perform the following functions:

- (a) Meet regularly, ideally at least once every month, to properly discharge its responsibilities, with independent views expressed during such meetings being given due consideration, and that all such meetings shall be properly documented or minutes;
- (b) Determine PPA's purpose and value, as well as adopt strategies and policies, including risk management policies and programs, in order to ensure that the PPA survives and thrives despite financial crises and that its assets and reputation are adequately protected;
- (c) Monitor and evaluate on a regular basis the implementation of corporate strategies and policies, business plans and operating budgets, as well as Management's over-all performance to ensure optimum results;
- (d) Adopt a competitive selection and promotion process, professional development program, as well as a succession plan, to ensure that the Officers and employees of the PPA have the necessary motivation, integrity, competence and professionalism; monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest of Directors;
- (e) Monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest of Directors, Management and Officers, including misuse of corporate assets and abuse in related party transactions;
- (f) Implement a system of internal checks and balances, which may be applied in the first instance to the Board; and ensure that such systems are reviewed and updated on a regular basis;
- (g) Ensure the integrity of the PPA's accounting and financial reporting systems, including independent audit, and that appropriate systems of control are in place, in particular, systems for risk management, financial and operational control, and compliance with the law and relevant standards;
- (h) Identify and monitor, and provide appropriate technology and systems for the identification and monitoring of key risks and performance areas;

- (i) Adopt, implement and oversee the process of disclosure and communications;
- (j) Constitute an Audit Committee and such other specialized committees as may be necessary, or required by applicable regulations, to assist the Board in discharging its functions: and
- (k) Conduct and maintain the affairs of the PPA within the scope of its authority, as prescribed in its Charter and applicable laws, rules and regulation.

Sec. 9. Composition of the Board - Pursuant to its Charter, as amended, the composition of the PPA Board shall be nine (9) and consist of the following members:

- i. The Secretary of Department of Transportation and Communication who shall act as Chairman;

- ix. One (1) other person representing the private sector

Sec. 10. Charter of Expectations for a Member of the Board - to ensure a high standard of best practice on governance for the PPA and to promote and protect the interest of PPA and its stakeholders, a Member of the Board shall sign a formal Charter of expectations and conduct himself with honesty and integrity in accordance thereof, among others, as follows:

- a. Conduct business transactions with the PPA fairly, ensuring that personal interest does not affect his independent judgment and the Board;
- b. Devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge his duties and responsibilities;
- c. Act judiciously on matters brought before the Board, thoroughly evaluating the issues involved before making any decision;
- d. Exercise independent judgment;
- e. Have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting PPA and its operations, including the provisions of PPA's Charter, rules and regulations, the requirements of the GCG and where applicable, the requirements of other relevant regulatory agencies; and

- f. Observe confidentiality on non-public information acquired by reason of his position as a Director;
- g. Ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of PPA, control environment. and
- h. Comply with the "No Gift Policy" of the PPA.

Sec.11. List of Disclosures to be made by a Member of the Board. -The following should be disclosed by a Board member:

- 2. Compensation package, including travel, representation, transportation and any allowance and form of expenses;
- 3. Attendance record in every Board and Committee meetings; and
- 4. Other disclosures that may be required by GCG, existing laws, rules and regulations.

Sec. 12. Director's Sworn Statement as the Truth and Fairness of PPA's Financial Statement. – Each Director shall issue a sworn statement confirming the truthfulness and fairness of the PPA's annual financial statements for submission to GCG.

Sec.13. Ex Officio Alternates. - Ex Officio Directors may designate their respective alternates, who ideally should be the officials next-in-rank to them, and whose acts shall be considered the acts of their principals.

Sec. 14. Multiple Board Seats –The capacity of PPA Appointive Board Member to serve with diligence shall not be compromised. As such, no PPA Appointive Director may be appointed to other GOCCs, unless allowed by law or by the primary functions of their positions.

Sec. 15. Fit and Proper. – All members of the PPA Board, including the GM and other Officers, shall be qualified by the Fit and Proper Rule issued by the Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG) approved by the President of the Philippines, including any future amendments and revisions thereof, and shall include by reference the qualifications expressly provided for in the PPA Charter.

Sec. 16. Term of Office of Appointive Directors. – In accordance with R.A. No 10149 any provision in the PPA Charter to the contrary notwithstanding, the term of each Appointive Director shall be for one (1) year, unless removed for cause. Provided, however, that each Appointive Director shall continue to hold office until the successor is appointed and qualified. The one (1) year term of office of all Appointive Directors shall begin on 01 July of the year of appointment and ending on 30 June of the following year. Appointment to any vacancy shall only be for the unexpired term of the predecessor.

Sec.17. Board Officers.- The Board Officers of PPA are the Chairman of the Board (who is the highest ranking of the Board Officers), the Vice-Chairman and the Corporate Secretary, and the Compliance Officer, who must all be Filipino citizens.

17.1 Chairman of the Board. - The Chairman shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board. The Chairman's responsibilities may include:

V.

DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Sec. 26. Fiduciaries of the State. - Directors and Officers are fiduciaries of the State in that: (a) they have the legal obligation and duty to always act in the best interest of PPA, with utmost good faith in all dealings with the properties, interests and monies of PPA; and (b) they are constituted as trustees in relation to the properties, interests and monies of PPA.

Sec.27. Directors and Officers as Public Officials. - Directors and Officers are also Public Officials as defined by, and are therefore covered by the provisions of the "Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees," with its declared policies: (a) to promote a high standard of ethics in public service; and (b) Public Officials and employees shall at all times be accountable to the people and shall discharge their duties with utmost responsibility, integrity, competence, and loyalty, act with patriotism and justice, lead modest lives, and uphold public interest over personal interest.

Sec.28. Respect for and Obedience to the Constitution and the Law. - As Public Officials, a Director or Officer shall respect and obey the Constitution, and shall comply, and cause PPA to faithfully and timely comply, with all legal provisions, rules and regulations, and corporate governance standards, applicable to them and to the PPA in which they serve, and to act within the bounds of PD 857, as amended.

Sec. 29. Duty of Diligence. - The fiduciary duty of diligence of Directors and Officers to always act in the best interest of the PPA, with utmost good faith in all its dealings with the property and monies of the PPA, includes the obligation to:

- (a) Exercise extraordinary diligence, skill and utmost good faith in the conduct of the business and in dealing with the properties of the PPA, using the utmost diligence of a very cautious person with due regard to all the circumstances;
- (b) Apply sound business principles to ensure the financial soundness of the PPA; and
- (c) Employ only Officers who are fit and proper to hold such office with due regard to the qualifications, competence, experience and integrity.

Every Director or Officer, by the act of accepting such position in the PPA, affirms and agrees: (1) to have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the PPA, including its Charter, the requirements of the GCG, and where applicable, the requirements of other Supervising Agencies; and (2) to always keep himself informed of industry developments and business trends in order to safeguard the PPA's interests and preserve its competitiveness.

Sec. 30. Duty of Loyalty. - The fiduciary duty of loyalty of Directors and Officers to always act in the best interest of the PPA, with utmost good faith in all its dealings with the property and monies of the PPA, includes the obligation to:

- (a) Act with utmost and undivided loyalty to the PPA;
- (b) Avoid conflicts of interest and declare any interest they may have in any particular matter before the Board; and
- (c) Avoid (1) taking for themselves opportunities related to the PPA's business; (2) using the PPA's property, information or position for personal gain; or (3) competing with the PPA's business opportunities.

30.1. Avoid Conflict of Interest. - Directors and Officers shall at all times avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest with the PPA. Each shall also avoid any conduct, or situation, which could reasonably be construed as creating an appearance of a conflict of interest. Any question about a Director's or Officer's actual or potential conflict of interest with the PPA shall be brought promptly to the attention of the Chairman of the Board, who will review the question and determine an appropriate course of action.

30.2, Trustee Relation to PPA Properties, Interests and Monies. – Except for the per diem received for actual attendance in board meetings and the reimbursement for actual and reasonable expenses and incentives as authorized by the GCG, any and all realized and unrealized profits and/or benefits including, but not limited to, the share in the profits, incentives of Directors or Officers in excess of that authorized by the GCG and any benefit from the performance of Directors or Officers acting for and in behalf of the PPA in dealing with its properties, investments in other corporations and other interest, are to be held in trust by such Director or Officer for the exclusive benefit of PPA.

30.3. Taking of Corporate Opportunities. - Where a Director or an Officer, by reason of his being a member of the Board or an Officer of PPA, acquires or receives for himself/herself a benefit or profit of whatever kind or nature, including but not limited to, the use the properties of the PPA for his/her own benefit, the receipt of commission(s) on contract(s) with the PPA or its assets, or the taking advantage of corporate opportunities of the PPA, all such profits or benefits shall be subject to restitution pursuant to Section 24 of the Act, without prejudice to any administrative, civil or criminal action against members of the such Director or Officer. The remedy of restitution shall apply notwithstanding the fact that such Director or Officer risked his/her own funds in the venture.

30.4. Restitution. - Pursuant to Section 24 of the Act, upon the determination and report of the Commission on Audit (COA) pursuant to a Notice of Disallowance which has become final and executory, that properties or monies belonging to the PPA are in the possession of a Director or Officer of PPA without authority, or that profits are earned by the Director or Officer in violation of his/her fiduciary duty, or the aggregate per diems, allowances and incentives received in a particular year are in excess of the limits provided under the Act, the Director or Officer receiving such properties or monies shall immediately return the same to the PPA.

Failure by a Director or Officer to make the restitution within thirty (30) days after a written demand has been served shall, after trial and final judgment, subject such Director or Officer to the punishment of imprisonment for one (1) year and a fine equivalent to twice the amount to be restituted and, in the discretion of the court of competent jurisdiction, disqualification to hold public office.

Sec.31. Limits to Compensation, Per Diems, Allowances and Incentives. - The compensation, per diems, allowances and incentives of the members of the Board of the PPA shall be:

- (a) determined by the GCG, using as a reference, among others, Executive Order No. 24, dated February 10, 2011;
- (b) Directors shall not be entitled to retirement benefits acting as such directors; and
- (c) The total yearly per diems and incentives in the aggregate which the Directors may receive shall be determined by the President upon the recommendation of the GCG based on the achievement by such GOCC of its performance target(s).

Sec. 32. No Gift Policy. - A Director or Officer shall not solicit, nor accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, favour, entertainment, loan or anything of monetary value ("Gift") from any person where such Gift:

- (a) Would be illegal or in violation of law;
- (b) Is part of an attempt or agreement to do anything in return;
- (c) Has a value beyond what is normal and customary in the PPAs business;
- (d) Is being made to influence the member of Board's, or Officer's, actions as such; or
- (e) Could create the appearance of a conflict of interest.

Sec. 33. Duty of Confidentiality. - Pursuant to their duties of diligence and loyalty, a member of the Board or an Officer shall not use or divulge confidential or classified information officially made known to them by reason of their office and not made available to the public, either: (1) to further their private interests, or give undue advantage to anyone; or (2) which may prejudice the public interest.

VI.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE PPA TO DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Sec. 34. Providing for Staff Support to Directors. - PPA shall provide the members of its Board with reasonable support staff and office facilities to allow them to properly discharge their duties and responsibilities.

Sec. 35. Obtaining of Directors and Officers Liability Insurance (DOLI). - Having imposed the highest level of responsibility and accountability on the members of the Board and Officers, 1.e., that of extraordinary diligence, it is equitable that when PPA itself and/or the members of the Board and Management are sued before tribunals on matters that are within the official functions and capacity and on matters where business judgment has been exercised in good faith, that there be proper recovery of the costs of litigation and the judgment liability imposed. It is prudent measure therefore for PPA to obtain "Directors and Officers Liability Insurance" (DOLI) coverage for itself and the members of the Governing Board and Officers against contingent claims and liabilities that may arise from, as well as the expenses that may be incurred in prosecuting, the actions that may be filed against PPA arising from the actions of the Governing Board and/or Management that may cause loss or damage to third parties.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as to authorize the reimbursement or the incurring of costs, such as the payment of premiums on DOLI coverage, by PPA on the litigation expenses incurred and the judgment liability decreed against a Director or Officer for breach of any of his fiduciary duties or for fraud committed in the performance of his or her duties to PPA and/or its stakeholders.

VII. CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR) AND RELATIONS WITH STAKEHOLDERS

Sec. 36. PPA as a Responsible Corporate Citizen. - As a leading GOCC, PPA continues to work towards upholding the highest standards of corporate governance by simply being a responsible corporate citizen. This entails (i) developing and operating ports that cater to the needs of local and/or global clients in accordance with best practices and state-of-the-art technologies, (ii) promoting the growth of communities by linking them to the mainstream of economic activities, (iii) establishing fair and equitable business relationships which are beneficial to both port stakeholders and the government, and (iv) uplifting the lives of its employees by giving them a work environment that is conducive and offers opportunities for career advancement.

Sec. 37. Duty to be Responsive to Stakeholders - Every Director and Officer accepts the position fully aware that he assumes certain responsibilities not only to PPA, but also with different constituencies or Stakeholders, who have the right to expect that the PPA is being run in a prudent manner and with due regard to the interests of all Stakeholders. Consequently, members of the Board and Officers shall deal fairly with the PPA's employees, customers, suppliers and other Stakeholders. No member of the Board or Officer may take unfair advantage of the PPA's employees, customers, suppliers and other Stakeholders through manipulation, concealment, abuse of confidential or privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair-dealing practice.

Sec. 38. CSR Principles. - As an integral part of the National Government, PPA is inherently mandated to be socially responsible, to act and operate as good corporate citizen. The Board shall recognize and perform the obligations the PPA has towards the National Government, together with the employees, suppliers, customers and other Stakeholders, and the communities in which it operates.

The Directors, Officers and all its employees are required to abide by ethical policies as mandated by the GCG. The protection of the reputation and goodwill of PPA is of fundamental importance, and Directors, Officers and employees should be aware of the disciplinary implications of breaches of policy.

Every official or employee is encouraged to promptly report any potentially illegal, improper and/or unethical misconduct that they become aware of at their workplace or in connection with their work. PPA should have an environment that enables its people to raise genuine and legitimate concerns internally. However, in the event that the stakeholders which include employees of the PPA, believe their reporting to management may result in harassment, or undue distress, they may contact the GCG support to report such matters. The GCG provides for an opportunity for concerns to be investigated and ensures appropriate action is taken to resolve the matter effectively.

Sec. 39. Formal Recognition of the Stakeholders. - PPA Board shall, as an integral part of its Charter Statement and embodied in this Manual of Corporate

Governance, identify and formally recognize the PPA's major and other Stakeholders, identify the nature of their interests, provide a hierarchy system of their conflicting interest in the PPA, and providing a clear policy on communicating or relating with Stakeholders accurately, effectively and sufficiently, together with a system of properly rendering an accounting on how the PPA has served their legitimate interests. IX. HIGHEST STANDARDS PRINCIPLE

Sec. 46. Public service being a public trust, nothing in this Code shall be construed as relieving or excusing PPA, its Directors and Officers, from complying with more rigorous standards of corporate governance; or a waiver of the separate reportorial requirements mandated by the regulatory agencies that have jurisdiction over the PPA and its business operations; or a waiver of the administrative or criminal liabilities imposed by existing laws, rules and regulations, such as the Anti-Graft and Corrupt Practices Act, and the Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees for Government Officials, for offenses or breach of ethical standards committed by Directors, Officers and employees of PPA.

X. STAKEHOLDERS' NEEDS AND SATISFACTION SURVEY

Sec. 47. Periodically, as instructed by the Board, a Stakeholder's Needs and Satisfaction Survey may be undertaken by PPA. The respondents to the survey are identified and the methodology to be used including the formulation of questionnaires and the analysis of the results will be determined based on the objectives of the survey.

XI. COMMUNICATION

Sec. 48. Communication within the Organization, with Stakeholders, and Continuing Education of PPA Board, Executive officers, and Employees on this Manual of Corporate Governance. The following shall be pursued by the Board and Management toward an effective communication of this Manual:

- a. Communication within the Organization. The Board and Management shall ensure the full dissemination of this Manual to all employees and shall enjoin the development of organizational policies and processes consistent with this Manual.
- b. Education on the Manual of Corporate Governance. Funds shall be allocated for the conduct of an orientation program to institutionalize this Manual and for the continued education and training of all officers and employees to ensure compliance herewith.

- c. Communication with Stakeholders. The Board and Management shall ensure the full dissemination of this Manual to all stakeholders through, though not limited to, the conduct of public information dissemination campaigns and members' dialogues so as to render the PPA accountable to its stakeholders for any violations committed against this Manual.

This Manual shall be made available for inspection by any of the PPA stakeholders at reasonable hours on business days.

XII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Sec. 49. Administrative Sanctions. – A fine of PhP200.00 up to PhP100,000.00 and/or removal from his office, after due notice and hearing, shall be imposed to any member of the Board for failure to observe and/or perform any of the above responsibilities and duties and provisions of this Manual, without prejudice to other sanctions prescribed under the PPA Charter, R.A. 10149, and other applicable existing laws, and regulations.
